

Ellie Thorstad
OCM Senior Consultant

Ellie has over 12 years of experience achieving program success and transformational change across the public and private sectors. She is an adaptable strategic partner, combining business acumen with an authentic and transparent working style to deliver effective and measurable change management. She is also a skilled communicator who engages teams with nuance and empathy to convey complex information and bridge communication gaps. In addition to earning an MPA in 2018 with an emphasis on Organizational Development and Human Resources, Ellie is a Prosci- and AIM-certified Change Practitioner with years of training, learning and development, and DEI experience.

Ellie is committed to continuous learning and believes humor, humility, and gratitude should be present in all areas of life. Outside of work, Ellie loves spending with family and friends, cross-stitching, completing DIY projects at home, and enjoying a wide variety of music and art.
