

John Anderson
President/Founder

John has 35 years experience as an Information Management consultant with an emphasis on management of large software Design, Development and Implementation projects. He has been a consultant and trainer to many fortune 100 companies as well as federal, state and local government agencies.

John is currently the Executive Director for Technology Transformation for the One Washington Program which will replace the state of Washington's aging financial, Human Capital Management, Budget, and Procurement systems. John also managed the design, development and implementation of the state of Washington's Medicaid Management Information System (ProviderOne) which successfully launched in May 2010 and managed subsequent phases which launched in 2015 and 2016. John also managed the implementation of Washington's Health Benefit Exchange (Healthplanfinder) which successfully launched in October 2013.

John has a Bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering from the University of Utah with minors in Business and Computer Science.