

Evette (Evie) Rudolph
OCM Consultant

Evette has 7+ years in FinTech with a sub-focus in Learning and Development. Evette merges emotional intelligence, literacy and organizational psychology practices to curate effective solutions within the change management space.

As a Certified Financial Education Instructor, Evette is featured in 3 published articles, leverages behavioral economics to address mindset patterns, and explores neurodiverse ways of learning. Hauling from her FinTech operations experience, Evette defines standard operating procedures (SOPs) that assist with navigating organizational shifts and role functions.

In Evette's leisure time her nature walks, somatic grounding, interior design, audiobooks and intentional cooking with family and friends are her golden moments.
