

Kathy Pickens-Rucker has more than 25 years of experience in information technology having led many successful projects for state agencies including Health Care Authority, Department of Licensing, Department of Social and Health Services, Department of Corrections, and Department of Health. Having worked for a variety of agencies and for the State Chief Information Officer, Kathy has many insights into the challenges facing Washington State agencies. She is a personable, practical leader who creates effective teams that can navigate those challenges to achieve success.

KPR is a third generation Washingtonian who also raises rhododendrons (that love our rain) and enjoys spending time with her family when she's not in the garden
